TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals: The aim of the study visit is to provide participants with the opportunity to come together and learn about VET systems in different countries, share examples of good practice and possibly plan future cooperation. The event will offer a set of activities allowing open dialogue and direct interactions among participants.

Expected results: The participants will visit VET institutions with a strong co-operation between VET and businesses, learn about VET systems in different countries, create a network of VET educators, share knowledge, good practices and experiences related to different aspects of VET education and Erasmus+ projects, join activities with participants from other European countries.

Additional information: The Czech NA will cover accommodation (3 nights), meals during the activity and cultural programme. The participants are expected to arrive on 7. 11. before 15:00 (registration will be from 15:00 till 16:00). The TCA will finish on 9. 11. in the evening, the departure on 10. 111. It is necessary to take part in the entire programme.The participants will have to follow all the necessary COVID measures valid at the time of the activity.
