TCA DESCRIPTION

|---|---|
| Themes and goals: | The aim of the contact seminar is to provide an opportunity for organisations from different European countries to find partners with similar interest and to enhance the development of project ideas to be funded in the new Erasmus+ program. The thematic area in the focus will be the engagement of adults with low educational background in adult learning. Special emphasis will be put on the development of adult basic skills as a key element of the implementation of the Upskilling Pathways initiative. |
| Expected results: | Participants have a strong awareness of the needs of the target groups and are willing to work on developing new ways of involving themParticipants have a thorough understanding of the Upskilling Pathways initiative and become more aware of their own role in the implementation Sharing and collecting best practices in the fieldCreation of new partnerships among European organisations in the focus areaNew project ideas are born |
| Additional information: | An expert on people with low educational background will facilitate workshops, although, partner NA staff/experts in this field are more than welcome to facilitate workshops (developing content with the involvment of the delegated expert) |
