TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals: The aim is for the benefits of international collaboration among teachers in special education settings to be seen and to inspire these teachers to engage in Erasmus+ and eTwinning.

Expected results: To attract newcomers to engage in Erasmus+ Schools and eTwinning activities To discuss current trends and priorities in relation to inclusion in schools and explore ways in which Erasmus+/eTwinning can be used to improve inclusive practices To exchange good practice and facilitate networking opportunities among participants that may result in future partnerships for Erasmus+ / eTwinning projects. To provide information about models of support available to special education teachers under Erasmus+ and eTwinningTo listen to good practice in terms of how Erasmus+ can compliment your work with children with special educational needs

Additional information: The overall aims and objectives have remained the same to our orginal proposal, however we are focusing on special education as a theme to ensure an inclusion element to the conference.
