TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:

“Strategic Partnerships Plus- Empowering democratic participation” is a three days event aiming to develop viable cross-sectoral strategic partnerships in order to be submitted under Key Action 2 (for the future 2020 deadline). The event is designed as a training course on how to write a successful application, combined with elements of a classic contact making seminar.

Expected results:

We will manage: • To create a space for developing partnerships able to submit good quality applications and implement effectively cross-sectoral Strategic Partnerships • To provide the necessary information to understand and implement Erasmus+ strategic partnerships • To provide a space for sharing knowledge and experiences between organizations involved in all types of learning activities. The event will place the participants in the centre of the learning process through interactive methods while focusing on the understanding of the concepts and specifics of working in transnational cooperation projects. A mix of training, workshops, facilitated discussions will be used while the work results will be presented in the plenary sessions. The activities will be led by experienced facilitators with a broad understanding of the learning process and strategic partnerships under Erasmus+.

Additional information:

The thematic focus will be how to better promote the European values and democratic participation in day-by-day activity, considering Erasmus+ as a tool to empower all the beneficiaries in this sense. Thus, this TC is addressing all sectors in Erasmus+ eligible for strategic partnerships: education, training and youth and it will gather representatives from NGOs, youth associations, schools, VET organizations, universities, public institutions and public authorities, companies. Why sending participants? • The event will create a space for developing partnerships able to submit good quality applications and implement effectively cross-sectoral Strategic Partnerships; • It will provide the necessary information and skills to understand and implement such partnerships; • To provide a space for sharing knowledge and experiences between organizations involved in all types of learning activities. The event will place the participants in the center of the learning process through interactive methods, while focusing on the understanding of the concepts and specifics of working in international projects. A mix of workshops, facilitated discussions and other active tools will be mainly used while the work results will be presented in the plenary sessions. The activities will be led by experienced facilitators with sound understanding of the learning process and Strategic Partnerships.
