TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	A three working days event aiming to develop viable cross-sectoral Strategic Partnerships under Key Action 2 - Strategic Partnerships in the field of education, training and youth. The thematic focus for this year will be democratic participation.
Expected results:	We will manage: • To create a space for developing partnerships able to submit good quality applications and implement effectively cross-sectoral Strategic Partnerships • To provide the necessary information to understand and implement Erasmus+ strategic partnerships • To provide a space for sharing knowledge and experiences between organizations involved in all types of learning activities. The event will place the participants in the centre of the learning process through interactive methods while focusing on the understanding of the concepts and specifics of working in transnational cooperation projects. A mix of training, workshops, facilitated discussions will be used while the work results will be presented in the plenary sessions. The activities will be led by experienced facilitators with a broad understanding of the learning process and strategic partnerships under Erasmus+.
Additional information:	The working days will be 13, 14 and 15 of November. 12 of November will be arrival day and 16 of November departure day.
